

At some point, many businesses or organizations need more than a bookkeeper, but may not need a full-time financial executive. That's where a part-time CFO comes in.

ORRPCs professionals are trained to identify process improvement opportunities to help you add to your company's profitability. From accounting, such as invoicing, account receivable, accounts payable, inventory decisions, and debt or financing needs, to budgets and forecasts, our professionals can be of assistance.

Our services include:

- Outsourced Controller
- Invoicing
- Accounts Receivable
- Accounts Payable
- Inventory decisions, analysis, and consulting
- Budgets and Forecasts
- Cash Flow Planning and Performance Benchmarking
- Tax Compliance Consulting
- Financial Reporting

When financial complications arise, it takes you off task and away from your core business. Working with one of our professionals, you gain access to experienced financial professionals without the burden of salary and benefits. Plus, we work with you to improve your company's overall performance, while giving you more time to focus on what you love – your business.
