

Tax Preparation Checklist

Before you begin to prepare your income tax return, go through the following checklist. Highlight the areas that apply to you, and make sure you have that information available. Better yet, attach the list to a folder of your tax documents, and check items off as you add them to the folder.

Most people will need:

Personal information

This information tells the IRS exactly who's filing, who is covered in your tax return, and where to deposit your tax refund.

- Social Security numbers and dates of birth for you, your spouse and your dependents
- Copies of last year's tax return for you and your spouse (helpful, but not required)
- Bank account number and routing number, if depositing your refund directly into your account

Information about your income.

- W-2 forms for you and your spouse
- 1099-C forms for cancellation of debt
- 1099-G forms for unemployment income, or state or local tax refunds
- 1099-NEC (or 1099-K if you're paid through a third-party such as PayPal) forms for you and your spouse for any independent contract work
- Form 1099-R (for IRA/pension distributions)
- 1099-S forms for income from sale of a property
- 1099-INT, -DIV, -B, or K-1s for investment or interest income
- SSA-1099 for Social Security benefits received
- Alimony received
- Business or farming income—profit/loss statement, capital equipment information
- Rental property income and expenses—profit/loss statement, suspended loss information
- Prior year installment sale information—Forms 6252, principal and interest collected during the year, SSN and address for payer

Additional Income

Remember to report all income you receive, including:

- Business income
- Rental real estate, royalties, partnerships, S corporations, trusts, etc.
- Unemployment compensation
- Stock options
- Gambling winnings
- Payments for jury duty
- Scholarships
- Cancellation of debt
- Taxable Health Savings Account distribution
- Prizes and awards

Adjustments to your income.

The following items can help reduce the amount of your income that is taxed, which can increase your tax refund, or lower the amount you owe.

- Alimony paid for divorces executed prior to 2019.
- Form 1098-E for student loan interest paid (or loan statements for student loans)
- Form 1098-T for tuition paid (or receipts/canceled checks for tuition paid for post-high school)
- For teachers: canceled checks or receipts for expenses paid for classroom supplies, etc.
- Records of IRA contributions made during the year
- Receipts for any qualifying energy-efficient home improvements (solar, windows, etc.)
- Records of Medical Savings Account (MSA) contributions
- Self-employed health insurance payment records
- Records of moving expenses
- Keogh, SEP, SIMPLE, and other self-employed pension plan

If you itemize your deductions:

Deductions and credits

The government offers a number of deductions and credits to help lower the tax burden on individuals, which means more money in your pocket. You'll need the following documentation to make sure you get all the deductions and credits you deserve:
